H.J. Knight International EVP Matt Lanza Recognized by Certified Risk Managers International

2/9/15

Matt Lanza

Matt Lanza, Executive Vice President of H. J. Knight International Insurance Agency (www.knightint.com), was recently honored by Certified Risk Managers (CRM) International for his leadership and professionalism in the field of risk management.

Lanza, a resident of Kingston, has more than 20 years of diverse insurance expertise; he frequently addresses business groups on the subject of insurance and risk management. He was recently awarded a Certificate of Achievement, which formally recognized five consecutive years of active affiliation with Certified Risk Managers International, and the completion of a continuing educational program covering the latest issues and trends in risk management. Lanza holds the CRM designation issued by this organization; his recent studies included the successful completion of five three-day courses and several comprehensive examinations.

Certified risk Managers International is a member of The National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research. The CRM Program is an independent education and designation program designed expressly for professionals in risk management and related fields.

“Matt’s accomplishment signifies a commitment to advanced knowledge and professional development,” said William T. Hold, Ph.D., President of the National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research, and co-founder of Certified Risk Managers International. “Having and applying up-to-date technical knowledge is what distinguishes the most successful risk management practitioners.”

A resident of Kingston, Massachusetts, Matt Lanza is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire with a degree in Business Administration. He also holds an Associate in Risk Management designation from the Insurance Institute of America and a Certified Risk Manager and Certified Insurance Counselor designation from the National Insurance Alliance.

Of the designation and recognition, he said, “We understand the value of continuing education within our industry. Our goal is first and foremost to be certain we provide each client with the best possible solution for their risk management and insurance needs, and we are committed to educating our client base as to their choices and options. CRMI is an excellent venue to help us accomplish this goal.”
